CALL TO ORDER

Chairperson Debbie Kilduff called the meeting to order at 6:05 PM.

a. BOARD ROLL CALL

Board of Education members present: Richard Emery, Debbie Kilduff (Chair), Alison Nelson-Robertson, Nancy Osterlund (Vice-Chair), and Jeff Ouderkirk. Board Members absent: Chris Chandler (excused) and Clifford Ryer. Quorum achieved.

b. WELCOMES

c. APPROVAL OF MINUTES

Nelson-Robertson proposed and Ouderkirk seconded a motion to approve the minutes of the August 10, 2016 Board of Education meeting. All voted in favor. MOTION PASSED.

Ryslinge reminded the Board that although the August 10 Executive Session notes were distributed, they are to be considered confidential and should not be released to the public.

d. FINALIZE AGENDA

Ryslinge informed the Board that there were no changes to the agenda but acknowledged Ouderkirk's request for fiscal impact data of the salary raises and that the CoFO is prepared to share it this evening.

e. THANK YOU CHRIS CHANDLER

Kilduff suggested delaying the celebration (appreciation event for Chandler's years of service as Board Chair) until next meeting, when she has returned from traveling.

COMMUNICATIONS

a. WRITTEN

Ryslinge said that there was none, but would share information surrounding the "Alliance Defending Freedom" communication later in the meeting.

b. PUBLIC COMMENT ON AGENDA ITEMS

None.

COLLEGE REPORTS

a. PRESIDENT'S REPORT

Staffing

Ryslinge informed the Board of her pleasure in reporting that almost all of the open positions are now filled. Four of the five new faculty will be starting this fall. Business faculty, Dr. Alberto Flores will be here in January but plans on attending our fall New Faculty Orientation and In-Service. He will also be teaching the Introduction to Business course online this fall while he prepares for his move.

The two Academic Advisor vacancies have been filled: (1) Colleen Doherty is a permanent replacement for Barbara Kessler and (2) Blake Hagen will replace Ben Kaufmann while he serves as the Navigate (Student Success Grant) Program Manager for the year. Ryslingle added that Cindy Carlson, Dean of Student Services, is currently working to hire a temporary replacement for Blake in the Office of Instruction.

The finalist forums for the Dean of Academics and Workforce were held on Monday. Results from the feedback forms are being compiled and reference check calls are being made. The hope is to be ready to make an offer on Friday. Ryslingle added that if for some reason the search is unsuccessful, the plan would be to hire a temporary dean (likely a retired, former community college administrator).

Community Interface on Newport Campus

Ryslingle informed the Board that the new Community Interface Office, comprised of OCCC Advancement, Foundation and the Newport locations of the Small Business Development Center and Community Ed, has moved into the former Human Resources suite. (Conversations about having a temporary Head Start preschool facility in the space did not come to fruition, although the College continues to explore the potential for an Early Childhood Education program.) This space is intended to be a physical representation of our commitment around Community Engagement. The Director of Advancement will meet with donors and scholars there and the SBDC staff will utilize the space to conference with business clients.

Upcoming Events

The New Faculty Orientation will be held on September 19-20, OCCC's fall all-college In-Service follows on September 21 and 22, and then classes start next Monday. Ryslingle added that she wanted to express publically how much she appreciates the work of the staff who have been extremely busy preparing for the new academic year: Chris Rogers and his custodial staff are cleaning up and preparing the buildings inside and out; Student Services is enrolling students and hosting High School tours.

Fall Enrollment

Our enrollment is up approximately 10% on transfer/general education courses, but Ryslingle suggested that more accurate data will be revealed in next week's enrollment report.

Community Education/Small Business Development Center

The North County Center's "Speak Easy" series is going strong; the brewing class is full. Dave Price, SBDC Director, and his team were successful for the fourth time in securing a Lincoln City Urban Renewal Agency grant of $20,000 to underwrite the SBDC scholarship program for Small Business owners.

b. NEW ORGANIZATION CHARTS

Ryslinge directed Board member attention to the OCCC Organizational Charts that have recently been updated. The most complicated OCCC org chart (Academics and Workforce) lists most of the staff and faculty. Part-time term faculty are included on the chart if they taught last academic year (and haven't indicated that they would not teach this upcoming year). Other OCCC unit org charts will be completed soon.

BOARD REPORTS

A. FOUNDATION LIAISON: NANCY OSTERLUND

Osterlund reported on the productive OCCC Foundation Retreat that was held on August 27. She said that the next OCCCF meeting will be held September 27th. Osterlund invited her fellow Board members to attend the Oregon Community Foundation's "Endowment Partners 101" workshop that is scheduled for October 13 (from 10-noon in the OCCC Newport Community Room). She also described the events planned for the OCCCF Donor/Scholar Reception scheduled for that same evening (7:00-8:30 pm) and encouraged all to bring guests as a lovely evening has been guaranteed.

B. OCCA LIAISON: DEBBIE KILDUFF

Kilduff said that the OCCA has not met since June, but that Board members should check their email for an announcement about the early November OCCA annual conference in Sun River. She encouraged all to attend. Ryslinge added that she recently attended the OCCA Executive Committee retreat. She took some time to describe how OCCA is evolving from what once was solely an advocacy and Board support group to one that is moving towards adding a student success and membership services resource role. Kilduff asked Ryslinge to confirm that the November OCCA state meeting would be held at OCCC. It will be held at the Newport campus on November 18, 2016 (the Oregon Presidents' Council will be meeting the day before). A separate meeting between OCCC and accreditation partner Portland Community College will also be scheduled for some time the state gathering, if possible.

INFORMATION AND DISCUSSION ITEMS

A. Alliance Defending Freedom

Ryslinge informed the Board of communications received from this non-profit organization (whose goal is to defend 1st Amendment rights in educational environments) concerning the language used in some of OCCC's internal administrative policies on student conduct and computer use, after what appears to have been a cursory review of our website and catalog. After having checked with OCCA, Ryslinge learned that the same or similar letters had also been received by other colleges and universities in Oregon and across the US. Ryslinge clarified that the review College administrative policies began last year after completing the review of Board policies. The student conduct policy revision is already nearing completion. After seeking legal counsel (via the OCCA lawyer and our own college counsel, Mike Porter of Miller Nash) she feels confident that the College is on the right cycle of policy and practice review. Some discussion on free speech (and student conduct) ensued.

B. Board of Education Retreat Follow-up

Ryslinge asked the Board if there was anything they needed from her as a follow up from the retreat. Osterlund and Kilduff encouraged all members to participate in the OCCA meetings and trainings. Ryslinge informed the Board that a Board member handbook (from OCCA) is currently under revision but that it would be distributed once ready.

ACTION ITEMS

- a. Approval of Resolution 16-09-01: Ratification of 2016-2019 Collective Bargaining Agreement between Oregon Coast United Employees Local 6020, AFT, AFL-CIO and Oregon Coast Community College (Classified Unit)

After discussion, all voted in favor. MOTION PASSED.

- b. Approval of Resolution 16-09-02: Adoption of New Unified Classified Pay Schedule (Replacing previously separate schedules for Support Staff, and Administrative and Professional Staff.)
