C. COLLEGE REPORTS

Nancy Osterlund introduced the new Foundation Development Director, Emily Fasnacht. Emily shared with the board the many tasks she has been tending to since she started on September 30th. Emily reminded the board about the Donor Scholar Reception on Thursday, November 14th at 6:30pm in the Commons at Newport Campus.

a. President's Report.

Birgitte shared with the board her gratitude for the OCCC employees that assisted with the accreditation process – from working on the self-evaluation report to preparing and participating in the visit. Birgitte explained that the NWCCU team is made up of Northwestern Community College administrators who along with their regular day job, commit to the NWCCU to evaluate other Community College's ability to meet the NWCCU eligibility requirements and standards. Birgitte explained the process at this point, the College received a verbal report out from the team, a written report of their recommendations will be issued to OCCC and the NWCCU. A one-page form that addresses whether the team recommends OCCC for independence is given to the NWCCU. Emery asked if the recommendations must be implemented before a recommendation is made. Birgitte said no, and further explained that the Commission Board of Trustees will review the report the team provided along with the recommendation of the team and make the decision at their January 2020 meeting. Ryslinge and Lara will attend the NWCCU trustee meeting in January. Birgitte discussed the commendation and recommendations given by the team at the exit meeting. Birgitte gave each board member a handout with a summary of the commendations and recommendations the College received at the Spring 2018 visit comparing to the current visit and pointed out the progress the College has made. Birgitte explained the meaning behind the Title IV compliance (Clery Act) and how the College needs to provide safety information as a Federal Requirement, she plans to apply resources to this recommendation right away so that when they meet the NWCCU trustees in January she can report progress. Nancy shared what an amazing job Birgitte has done for the College since she came five years ago.
