

Associated Student Government (ASG) Application Form 2021-2022

Council Member seats are open starting Fall, 2021 term.

We're looking for representatives from AQS to Nursing, transfer students, online-only students, ECE students, or GED students.

We invite you to apply for a position as Council Member for the OCCC Associated Student Government. ASG works within the guidelines of an established constitution and by-laws as well as Oregon Community Colleges Student Association certification themes: Leadership development, intellectual growth, social responsibility, cultural competency, and effective communication.

Description:

- A councilmember is a voting member of ASG. Positions are selected through a voting process.
- As a councilmember you would help facilitate events that enrich or improve student life, including student clubs. Past events have included hosting blood drives, Celebrate Diversity, the food basket, etc.
- As a councilmember you must attend the weekly meetings, and staff the ASG office for at least two hours a week. Lead and/or participate in a minimum of one activity per term.
- The term of a councilmember lasts three academic terms. Applicants must make a commitment for all three terms. ASG Council members can be re-appointed for a second year.

Qualifications:

- Be enrolled at OCCC in a minimum of 6 credits per term. Attend OCCC for Fall, Winter, and Spring terms.

Benefits:

- Receive a tuition waiver for one course up to five credits.
- Represent student voices and perspectives in the College's decision-making process
- Represent your program. We're looking for representatives from AQS to Nursing, transfer students, online-only students, ECE students, or GED students.
- Develop valuable leadership skills that look great on a resume.
