Small Business Management Graduation

The SBM program graduated a total of 41 students – including some from Clatsop and Columbia Gorge – in a ceremony held Monday at the Oregon Coast Aquarium.

The ceremony included students in the new Restaurant SBM – a first for Oregon – and the Traditional SBM.

Both programs return next year ... along with RETAIL SBM, another first.

Richard Paris reached his 300th “Learn to Play Guitar” class taught for OCCC Community Education

Engagement Highlights

New aluminum “OCCC” letters appeared in front of the main campus, to serve primarily as a backdrop for any passing students who would like a celebratory end-of-term selfie. The letters will be semi-permanently installed near that location shortly after Commencement.

Marketing

A brand-new Google search campaign to drive OCCC brand awareness regionally and locally dropped this week and will continue for two months.

The College is working with the agency that supported our earlier geofencing campaigns. Increasing security and location privacy measures on smartphones is driving OCCC to explore new digital avenues to reach and communicate with more prospective students of all ages and walks of life.
