BANNED BOOKS WEEK

Banned Books Week is September 22-28.

All through September a selection of books that have been challenged or banned in the United States will be displayed in the Commons.

The 2022 and 2023 American Library Association lists of most challenged books will be available to read at the display. All books on both lists are available for check out at the Library.

WELCOME BACK OCCC STUDENTS!!!

Welcome back Sharks! We hope that this is a phenomenal year for you filled with the completion of milestones leading to achieving your dreams, making new friends, and learning new skills while having fun doing so.

Just a few highlights about the OCCC Library:

- If you have a library card from Siletz, Toledo, or Waldport Public Libraries, you can use that to check out items here.
- We have textbooks available for term-long check out; just come to the Library Services window.
- Our databases can be accessed via the Library Resources link in your Canvas classes.
- If you have any questions please talk to Shannon at the Library Services window or email us at library.services@oregoncoast.edu.

CONSTITUTION DAY

Constitution Day is September 17th. Come by the Library and snag a constitution pamphlet or check out one of our books related to the topic.

HISPANIC HERITAGE MONTH

All through September until October 15th we will be displaying books by Hispanic authors in honor of National Hispanic Heritage Month.

Take a look at our word search to the right and see if you can find the names of Hispanic authors.
