Newsletter Summer 2025

LGBTQIA+ PRIDE MONTH

All through the Summer we will be displaying books by and about those in the LGBTQIA+ community in honor of LGBTQIA+ Pride Month.

A selection of fiction and non-fiction will be on the cake display in the Commons near the Library Services window. These books will be switched out for others in our collection throughout the Summer.

Take a look at our word search on the back of this newsletter and see if you can find the names of LGBTQIA+ authors.

MANGO LANGUAGES

Summer is almost here and it's the perfect time to learn another language! All OCCC Library patrons have access to Mango Languages, contact the Library for help setting up your Mango account.

OREGON STATE PARK PASSES

Oregon State Park day parking passes are still available through the end of August. OCCC Library patrons can check out a pass for two week period and be able to park for free at any of the 25 state parks that charge a parking fee.

WELCOME TO THE END OF THE TERM!

The end of term is upon us. Congratulations to our new OCCC graduates!

Just a reminder to all students who have library items checked out, specifically textbooks and laptops, please remember to turn them in by the last day of Spring Term, June 13th. Have a great Summer everyone!

SUMMER READS

All through the Summer we will be displaying light reads and books that may be on your to-be-read list. This selection of items will be displayed on the table near the Library Services Window.

These items will be switched out periodically with other items from our collection throughout the Summer.
